2. Cover

AXA Assistance shall reimburse the insured if no satisfactory solution is found between the seller and AXA Assistance or between the seller and the insured at the latest 90 days subsequent to the finalisation of the payment, and provided that the item was paid for in full using the Keytrade Bank VISA Classic Card.

2.1 Delivery of goods purchased on the Internet

In the event of a problem occurring during the delivery of an internet purchase made by the insured, he/she can benefit from the cover provided by 'Safe Online Insurance' under the following cumulative conditions:

- the insured item must have been paid for in full using a Keytrade Bank VISA Classic Card;
- the transaction corresponding to the related purchase must appear on the Card statement.

2.2 In the event of non-compliant delivery or non-delivery of an insured purchase

- If the seller accepts the return of the item and sends a replacement item or refunds the insured, the insurance shall cover the costs incurred in returning the item to the seller, should these costs not be paid for by the seller.
- If the seller accepts the return of the item but does not send a replacement item nor reimburses the insured in the 90 days following the return of the non-compliant item, the insurance shall cover the costs of returning the insured item to the seller and/or the reimbursement of the purchase value of the insured item.
- If the seller does not accept the return of the insured item, the insurance shall cover the costs of sending the insured item to AXA Assistance Avenue Louise 166/1, 1050 Brussels and shall reimburse the purchase value of the insured item.

The purchase value of the insured item includes any taxes, up to the limit of the amount effectively paid to the seller.

AXA Assistance reserves the right to carry out an assessment or an investigation at its own expense in order to ascertain the circumstances and the real extent of the loss for the insured, and, hence, the amount to be refunded to the insured by AXA Assistance under the terms of this contract.
